Nau mai, haere mai ki te kura o Clifton Terrace. Welcome to Week 4 on The Terrace for Term 4.

Aquabots Competition

The CTS team, The Leaping Dolphins competed in the National Aquabots Competition held at Richmond pool on Sunday. They are Asher (Year 2), Isla (Year 3) and Jessica (Year 4) and they were punching way above their weight in the year 5-6 section of the competition! The challenge was to create an Aquabot and use it in the pool to complete certain tasks. Well done kids. This isn't an easy task and you have done really well.

Good Bye Margaret Brewster. Thanks For Tinkling the Ivories With Us

Many of you will know Margaret Brewster. Margaret, has taught piano at our school over a vast many years. Margaret has retired from teaching. Her last hurrah was on Friday night at the Nelson school of Music with her fabulous group of pianists.

As long as I have known Margaret, and it is some length of time, she has demonstrated her musical skill and aptitude. She always brought a joy of music and went the extra mile to ensure her students loved their favoured instrument.

So thank you Margaret for your sharing your passion. I know it will live on in your students.

Gymnastics Brilliance On The Terrace

Dene has had the privilege of working with some very dedicated gymnasts over terms 3 & 4. This term and some of last term some of the children have been so keen to get as much practise in as they could, they came before school, morning tea and lunch. She is very proud to announce the following results:

On Friday I took the Level 1 girls, Level 1 & 2 boys to the gymnasium at Nelson Intermediate for a competition run by Gymnastics Nelson. It is a fabulous opportunity for the children and CTS have had children competing for many many years now. The children all competed extremely well. The time and effort they put in over their many practices certainly paid off. They should all be exceedingly proud of the way they did on each apparatus.

I was delighted not only of their gymnastic prowess but the way they behaved at the competition.

1st Level 2 Boys: Alex Merrilees

2nd Level 1 Girls: McKenzie Curl

3rd Level 1 Girls: Kayla Trotter

5th Level 1 Girls Maddie Doherty

6th Level 1 Girls Florrie Wilson

This Friday, is the second day of the gymnastics competition and our Level 2 and 3 children will be competing. Good luck kids.

I would like to say a huge thank you to Dene Gornall for her work with the gymnastics team. She is a star getting all the children to a level to be able to compete. Thanks Dene.
