Kia ora koutou,

Nau mai, haere mai ki te kura o Clifton Terrace. Welcome to Week 7 on The Terrace. It's so nice hearing the children in the pool and the general sounds of summer. I hope you are all enjoying it too.

Middle School Athletics Day

Last Wednesday the Middle Syndicate enjoyed a morning of Awesome Athletics. Everyone tried to 'run, jump and throw' to their very best ability. It was great to see how the students at CTS give everything a go. Mā te mahi ka ora. Through hard work comes fulfilment.

Isla wrote this lovely poem about her day at the races!

Never Give Up

*Ready,
 On our marks,
 Get set,
 Go!
 Head swirling
 Butterflies dancing in my tummy
 Feet pounding the ground
 My view is a blur
 Looking at the person next to me
 Heart thumping
 Legs throbbing
 Keep on going, almost there
 I wish this would go faster
 Heat and sweat running down my forehead
 This feels like forever
 Running like lightning
 I see someone zoom past
 When will this be over?
 Hearing kids cheering*

*Then it fell silent
Was it over?
Was it done with?
Hopefully!
I jogged back to the start
I was exhausted
I look, I spot my card
I came last
Maybe next time I will come first
But I'm hopeful there will never be
A next time.*

A Haiku From Sam

Hawks swirling high above.
Swirling high to touch the sky.
Swirling up and down.

Nice work Sam. Haiku are so hard to write to get the correct pattern. Well done.

Library News

Its time for the books to come back to the library for stock-take, so please return your books as soon as possible. We will be running summer reading again these holidays, children will be able to get 10 books out each over the holiday break and the library will have two open evenings for changing books, registrations will open on 1st December. The famous reading photo competition will occur again this year, photograph your children reading and be in for great prizes. Thank you all for supporting Scholastic Books this year, for each book purchased a portion goes to books for our school library, the last catalogue is out now and orders are due 4th December.

Spud Monday

You have a couple more weeks to keep growing your spuds in your bucket.

We will collecting the buckets in and inspecting their contents on Tuesday the 10th of December.

If you supplied your own bucket then you can take it back home with your potatoes. If we supplied your bucket can you please bring a bag or container to put your potatoes in.

Wasps

This is a wasp warning. If you are heading through Corder Park and are enjoying the planting we did please, be careful if you are sticking your face over, or hand down the plant guards. Paper wasps have decided the plant guards are a good looking place to take up residence. We can't blame them as they look so beautiful. We will be getting down there soon to get rid of them.

Newsletters in 2020

Because of how we share information through Facebook, School Stream, SeeSaw etc, I am considering for 2020 to write just one newsletter a month. Often the information I have to share about different things has been shared already. I would be interested in your thoughts on this if you have any so feel free to email me on robw@cliftontce.school.nz if you would like to contribute your thoughts.

School Pool Update

Just a reminder that Pattison Swim School will be running their first two week session from the 2nd December - 13th December.

The pool will be unavailable during this time from after school till 5pm. Please be considerate regarding this as people have paid for the lessons.

The pool will also be being used for on Thursday 5th December after the lessons for the Middle Syndicate Sleepover and on the 16th December from 5.30pm - 8pm for the Year 6 Pool Party.

Thanks for your understanding.
